

Statement of Candidacy:

I would be honored to serve as the Region IV representative for the Florida Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators. After attending workshops, the annual conference, and speaking with peers, it is apparent that FASFAA plays an important part in the training and development of Financial Aid administrators across the state of Florida. I have always had a passion for education and learning and would enjoy playing a role in the development of other administrators.